2. Introduction

Your privacy is very important to us, and Resolute Capital Advisory (Pty) Ltd (“Resolute Capital Advisory”) is committed to protecting your right to privacy as well as your right to access any information that we as juristic representative of Discovery Life Ltd, an authorised financial services provider FSP 18147 and which Discovery may have on record about you.

This Access to Information Manual (‘Manual’) is prepared in compliance with the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (‘PAIA’) and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (‘POPIA’) and as amended from time to time. In terms of this legislation, everyone has the right to access their personal information that is processed by a private body or responsible party, such as Resolute Capital Advisory and/or the applicable Discovery product provider company within the Discovery Group. The purpose of this Manual is to enable requesters to get access to the records to which they are entitled in a quick, easy, and accessible manner.

This Manual applies to Resolute Capital Advisory as a juristic representative of Discovery Life Ltd. This Manual excludes all requests made to medical schemes administered by Discovery Health (Pty) Ltd (‘Discovery Health’).

3. Purpose of PAIA and POPIA

PAIA aims to give effect to everyone in South Africa’s constitutional right to access their information held by the state or a private body. This information can be accessed for the purpose of exercising or protecting any right contained in the Bill of Rights.

When such a request is made, Resolute Capital Advisory is obliged to give access to the requested information, except where the law expressly provides that the information must not be released.

It is important to note that PAIA recognises certain limitations to the right of access to information, which includes:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of the right to privacy.
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient, and good governance.

The limitation should be in a manner that balances that right of access to information with any other rights.

The main objective of POPIA is to promote the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies. POPIA amended certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information.

4. Access to the Information Manual

In line with the legislative requirements, this Manual serves as Resolute Capital Advisory’ information manual, and provides information on both the types and categories of records held by Resolute Capital Advisory and/or the relevant Discovery product provider. This includes the following:

- A description of the records held by and on behalf of Resolute Capital Advisory and/or Discovery
- The procedure to be followed
- Any fees payable when requesting access to any of these records This Manual is available for public inspection as follows:
 - At the physical address of Resolute Capital Advisory office
 - On request by any person and upon payment of a reasonable prescribed fee
 - From the designated Information Officer of Resolute Capital Advisory.

A fee for a copy of the Manual shall be payable per each A4- size page photocopy made.

The Information Regulator has published a guide on its website on how the use of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000, as amended.

TRANSBORDER FLOWS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Resolute Capital Advisory may from time to time be required to transfer personal information to a third party who is in a foreign country to administer certain services in accordance with the Discovery products. Personal Information may be stored in data servers hosted outside South Africa. However, Resolute Capital Advisory may only do so subject to the provisions of POPIA. Academic or market research may be conducted by a company within Resolute Capital Advisory and/or the Discovery Group and/or by a contracted research and survey provider, which may be inside or outside South Africa.

SECURITY MEASURES

Resolute Capital Advisory takes extensive information security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of personal information in Resolute Capital Advisory's possession or under its control. Resolute Capital Advisory takes appropriate technical and organisational measures designed to ensure that personal data remains protected and secure against unauthorised or unlawful processing or access, and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

12. Grounds for refusal of access to records

Resolute Capital Advisory may on its own or in terms or in accordance with Discovery's privacy rules, may refuse a request for information on the following basis:

- Mandatory protection of the personal information, special personal information, or privacy of a third party who is a natural person (including children), if supplying the information would involve the unlawful or unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person
- Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
 - Trade secrets or intellectual property of that third party
 - Financial, commercial, scientific, compliance, or technical information, if the disclosure would likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party
 - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Resolute Capital Advisory if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement or legislation
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property
- Mandatory protection of records that would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings
- The commercial activities of Resolute Capital Advisory and/or Discovery, which may include:
 - Trade secrets
 - Intellectual property
 - Financial information that, if disclosed, could put Resolute Capital Advisory and/or Discovery at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition
 - A computer program, algorithm, actuarial modelling, or application that is owned by Resolute Capital Advisory and/or Discovery and that is protected by copyright.
- The research information of Resolute Capital Advisory and/or Discovery or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

REFUSAL WHEN THE RECORD CANNOT BE FOUND

- If all reasonable steps have been taken by Resolute Capital Advisory to find the record requested by the Requester and same cannot be found for reasons justifiable as per section 55 of PAIA, the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory shall provide an affidavit or affirmation to the Requester advising that it is not possible to give access to the record requested.
- In the event the record is found subsequently, the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory undertakes to contact the Requester to gain access to same, after the payment of the applicable access fee.

13. Access procedure

A requester requiring access to information held by Resolute Capital Advisory must complete the Access Request Form 2 hereto. The manual form must be submitted to the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory at the postal address, physical address or email address provided. The requester must pay an access request fee (and a deposit, if applicable).

- The Access Request Form 2 must contain enough details to enable the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory to identify:
 - The records requested
 - The proof of identity of the requester
 - The form of access required if the request is granted
 - The email address, postal address, or fax number of the requester.
- If the request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request. This information must be to the reasonable satisfaction of authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory and the requester must clearly disclose the right they wish to protect.
- If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- The requester will be informed whether access has been granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester must state the manner and the particulars so required.

ACCESS TO HEALTH INFORMATION OR RECORDS

Where applicable to the products and services for which Resolute Capital Advisory are licensed or in relation to any employee of Resolute Capital Advisory or otherwise applicable to Resolute Capital Advisory, where a request is made for access to information or a health record about the physical or mental health or wellbeing (“health information or records”) of the requester or person acting on behalf of a person to whom a record relates, and the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory is of the opinion that the direct disclosure of such health information or record would cause serious harm to the requester’s physical and/or mental health or wellbeing, the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory may, before granting the request for access, consult with a health practitioner nominated by the requester.

The following conditions apply for nominating a health practitioner:

- In the requester is under the age of 16 years, then a person having parental responsibilities must nominate the health practitioner.

- If the requester is incapable of managing their own affairs, then a legal representative or other person appointed by the court to manage their affairs must nominate the health practitioner.

If the health practitioner is of the opinion that the disclosure of the health information or record would likely cause serious harm to the requester's physical and/or mental health or wellbeing, the Information Officer may only grant access to the health information or record if the requester proves, to the satisfaction of authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory that adequate provision has been made for counselling or other arrangements before, during or after the disclosure of the health information or record to alleviate or avoid the harm to the requester.

Before the requester is given access to the health information or record, the person responsible for such counselling or arrangements must be given access to the health information or record.

THIRD-PARTY NOTIFICATION

Resolute Capital Advisory will take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom a requested record relates if the disclosure of that records would involve the disclosure of any of the following:

- Personal information about that third party
- Trade secrets of that third party
- Financial, compliance, commercial, scientific, or technical information (other than trade secrets) of that third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial, compliance or financial interests of that third party
- Information supplied in confidence by a third party, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations
- Information about research being, or to be, carried out by or on behalf of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the third party, a person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party, or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.

In addition, Resolute Capital Advisory will take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom a requested record relates if the disclosure of that records would lead to any of the following:

- Prejudice to that third party in commercial competition
- An action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement

Resolute Capital Advisory will inform the third party as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event, within 21 days after that request is received.

Within 21 days of being informed of the request, the third party may do one of the following:

- Make written or oral representations to authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory, explaining why the request for access should be refused
- Give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester.

Resolute Capital Advisory will notify the third party of the outcome of the request. If the request is granted, adequate reasons for granting the request will be given.

The third party may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the decision within 30 days after notice is given, after which the requester will be given access to the record after the expiry of the 30-day period.

14. Notification of decision

The authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

The 30-day period, within which Resolute Capital Advisory must decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30-day period. The period may be extended if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires Resolute Capital Advisory and/or Discovery to search for information held at another office.

15. Remedies available when Resolute Capital Advisory refuses a request for information

The decision of authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory is final and binding. Resolute Capital Advisory does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory may exercise external remedies at their disposal.

All complaints by a requester or a third party can be made to the Information Regulator or a court, in the manner prescribed below.

COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION REGULATOR

The requester or third party may submit a complaint in writing to the Information Regulator, within six months of the decision, alleging that the decision was not compliance with the provisions of the legislation.

The Information Regulator will investigate the complaint and reach a decision, which may include a decision to investigate, to take no further action, to conciliate the matter or to refer the complaint to the Enforcement Committee. The Information Regulator may serve an enforcement notice confirming, amending, or setting aside the impugned decision, which must be accompanied by reasons.

APPLICATION TO COURT

An application to court maybe brought in the ordinary course. For this purpose, any reference to an application to court includes an application to a relevant Magistrate's Court.

Annexure 1: Prescribed fees

PAYMENT OF FEES

Payment details can be obtained from the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory. Payment can be made by direct deposit into the nominated bank account of Resolute Capital Advisory. Proof of payment must be attached to the Access Request Form along with the other required documentation.

The following fees are (or may be) payable:

- Request fee
- Access fee
- Reproduction fee

Request fee

The requester must pay an initial request fee as indicated by the return of request in by Insurisk in terms of Form 3. The prescribed fee is set out below in Annexure 1.

Access fee

If the request for access is successful, an access fee must be paid prior to the release of the records by Resolute Capital Advisory. This fee is for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record(s). The access fee will be calculated based on the prescribed fees set out below in this annexure.

Reproduction fee

This fee applies to documents or records that are voluntarily disclosed. This is for reproduction, copying and transcribing the relevant documents or records. The reproduction fee will be calculated based on the prescribed fees set out below in this annexure.

Deposit

If the search for, and the preparation of, the record for disclosure would, in the opinion of the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory, require more than 6 hours, the requester may be required to pay as a deposit one third of the access fee (the fee which will be payable if the request is granted).

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is subsequently refused, then the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory must refund the deposit in full to the requester.

The requester must pay the prescribed fee before any processing, or any further processing, can take place.

Resolute Capital Advisory reserves the right to waive the fees payable subject to the type and categories of information requested as well as the effort required to provide access to the requested information. The requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the tender or payment of the request and access fees or deposit if Resolute Capital Advisory declines the requester's request to waive the fees.

Where Resolute Capital Advisory receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester and the authorized individual of Resolute Capital Advisory, upon receipt of the request, is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 hours, a deposit is payable by the requester.

The amount of the deposit is equal to one third of the amount of the applicable access fee.

Please note: In terms of Regulation 8, value-added tax (VAT) must be added to all fees prescribed in terms of the Regulations.

REPRODUCTION AND ACCESS FEES

Where Resolute Capital Advisory has voluntarily provided the Information Regulator with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.
